COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP P219

THE FIRST READING

JEREMIAH 31: 31-34

A reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other,

“Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

PSALM 51:1-13

SUNG BY THE CHOIR

ANGLICAN CHANT

1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; *
in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

2 Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I know my transgressions, *
and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against you only have I sinned *
and done what is evil in your sight.

5 And so you are justified when you speak *
and upright in your judgment.

6 Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
a sinner from my mother's womb.

7 For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

8 Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

9 Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.

10 Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.

11 Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.

12 Cast me not away from your presence *
and take not your holy Spirit from me.

13 Give me the joy of your saving help again *
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

THE SECOND READING

HEBREWS 5: 5-10

A reading from a letter to the Hebrews.

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

“You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

JOHN 12: 20-33

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

“Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Want to know about a ministry or who to contact to participate? Visit the blue umbrella across from The Little Shop in the breezeway and speak with someone wearing a yellow name tag.

We care

Do you know that you can call Saint Philip's CareLine for all sorts of reasons? You'll always speak with clergy who will listen and connect you with resources—within the parish or beyond. We're all in this together. Don't struggle alone. The number is 520-971-3551.

How to serve

This past week, Dcn Susan and several volunteers from Saint Philip's met with Primavera Foundation's Volunteer Coordinator. They learned about the wide range of services that Primavera provides to address poverty and homelessness.

Saint Philip's volunteers already cook and deliver a dinner once a month but there is opportunity to do much more!

Two examples include making sack lunches and preparing individual hygiene kits—both for the different shelters Primavera has.

If you are interested in learning more, then contact Dcn Susan at susanerickson27@gmail.com.

Parishioner art show

One of Saint Philip's most popular annual art shows will return in April: an exhibit that showcases parishioners' work.

All mediums are welcome! Acrylic, oil, pastels, watercolors, colored pencils, photography, quilling, quilting, weaving, tapestry.... The only requirement is that the art be able to hang on the gallery walls.

The deadline for submissions is 12:00pm on Sunday, March 31.

Paper copies of the Artist's Guidelines and the Artist's Agreement are available in the church office.
