COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A READING FROM THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12-14; 2:18-23

“Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher. “Utterly meaningless! Everything is meaningless.”

I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. I applied my mind to study and to explore by wisdom all that is done under the heavens. What a heavy burden God has laid on humanity! I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me. And who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? Yet they will have control over all the fruit of my toil into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is meaningless. So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labor under the sun. For a person may labor with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then they must leave all they own to another who has not toiled for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune. What do people get for all the toil and anxious striving with which they labor under the sun? All their days their work is grief and pain; even at night their minds do not rest. This too is meaningless.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 49:1-11 (read by all)

1. Hear this, all you peoples;
hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.
2. My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
3. I will incline my ear to a proverb *
and set forth my riddle upon the harp.
4. Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,
5. The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
and boast of their great riches?
6. We can never ransom ourselves, *
or deliver to God the price of our life;
7. For the ransom of our life is so great, *
that we should never have enough to pay it,
8. In order to live for ever and ever, *
and never see the grave.
9. For we see that the wise die also;
like the dull and stupid they perish *
and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
10. Their graves shall be their homes for ever,
their dwelling places from generation to generation, *
though they call the lands after their own names.
11. Even though honored, they cannot live for ever; *
they are like the beasts that perish.

A READING FROM THE EPISTLES

Colossians 3:1-11

Therefore, if you were raised with Christ, look for the things that are above where Christ is sitting at God's right side. Think about the things above and not things on earth. You died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, who is your life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

So put to death the parts of your life that belong to the earth, such as sexual immorality, moral corruption, lust, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). The wrath of God is coming upon disobedient people because of these things. You used to live this way, when you were alive to these things. But now set aside these things, such as anger, rage, malice, slander, and obscene language. Don't lie to each other. Take off the old human nature with its practices and put on the new nature, which is renewed in knowledge by conforming to the image of the one who created it. In this image there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all things and in all people.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 12:13-21

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People: Glorify to you, Lord Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." Jesus replied, "Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?" Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions." And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest. He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.' "Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink, and be merry."' "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?' "This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God."

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev'd K.D. Joyce

A period of silence for meditation follows the sermon

THE NICENE CREED (said together, standing)

BCP p358-359

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel or stand as you are able. Each petition is followed by a time for silent prayer.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Leader: I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishop, Jennifer; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. Pray for the Church.

Leader: I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people. Pray for justice and peace.

Leader: I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Leader: I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of God. Pray that they may find and be found by him.

Leader: I ask your prayers for the departed. Pray for those who have died.

Leader: I ask your thanksgiving for the living culture of the Pascua Yaqui and Tohono O'odham peoples, the traditional custodians of the land on which we stand. I invite your thanksgivings for the blessings of your own lives.

Leader: Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace, following the examples of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Blessed Philip, to glorify Christ in our own day.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
