COLLECT OF THE DAY (sung at 11:15AM)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated

A READING FROM THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES

Jeremiah 14:7-10, 19-22

Although our iniquities testify against us, act, O Lord, for your name's sake; our apostasies indeed are many, and we have sinned against you. O hope of Israel, its savior in time of trouble, why should you be like a stranger in the land, like a traveler turning aside for the night? Why should you be like someone confused, like a mighty warrior who cannot give help? Yet you, O Lord, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; do not forsake us! Thus says the Lord concerning this people: Truly they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet; therefore the Lord does not accept them, now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins. Have you completely rejected Judah? Does your heart loathe Zion? Why have you struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We look for peace, but find no good; for a time of healing, but there is terror instead. We acknowledge our wickedness, O Lord, the iniquity of our ancestors, for we have sinned against you. Do not spurn us, for your name's sake; do not dishonor your glorious throne; remember and do not break your covenant with us. Can any idols of the nations bring rain? Or can the heavens give showers? Is it not you, O Lord our God? We set our hope on you, for it is you who do all this.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 84:1-6 (sung by the choir)

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house
and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts,
my King and my God.
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 They will climb from height to height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.

Please remain seated

A READING FROM THE EPISTLES

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 18:9-14

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

A period of silence for meditation follows the sermon

THE NICENE CREED (said together, standing)

BCP p358-359

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel or stand as you are able. Each petition is followed by a time for silent prayer.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

A period of silence for meditation on our own sins and offenses follows

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE COMMUNION

9:00AM ANTHEM

'O how amiable'

The Saint Nicholas Choir and Saint Philip's Singers

O how amiable are thy dwellings, thou Lord of hosts! My soul hath a desire and longing to enter into the courts of the Lord. My heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. They will be always praising thee. The glorious majesty of the Lord our God be upon us; prosper thou the work of our hands upon us. O prosper thou our handiwork. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home. (Text: Psalm 84, paraphrased; music: Ralph Vaughan Williams)

11:15AM ANTHEM

'Teach me, O Lord'

The Canterbury Choir

Solos: Abby Alexander, Mary Paul

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness. Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way. Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. (Text: Psalm 119:33-38; music: William Byrd)

PASTORAL CARE AT SAINT PHILIP'S IN THE HILLS

Pastoral Care is the lifework of Christian community, the ministry of presence we each embody—of being with and alongside one another in times of crisis and celebration. Among the many informal ways we live daily into this shared ministry, the church—through its trained and licensed lay ministers, priests, and deacons—is always available to you in confidence in regards to any matter and in a variety of life circumstances. From prayer partners and Eucharistic Ministers, to home and hospital visitors, to grief recovery and mental health peer-support groups, never hesitate to reach out for help. There are several ways to report and request pastoral care needs, both in emergency and non-emergency situations.

BEGINNING THE PASTORAL CONVERSATION (NON-EMERGENCY)

If you need help in a non-emergency, call the office—520-299-6421—on Monday through Thursday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. (closed Fridays.) Ask to speak with one of the staff clergy. If the staff clergy are unavailable, they will return your call as soon as possible and work with you to determine how the church can be present to your needs: prayer, visitation, Holy Communion, among other services.

CRISIS PASTORAL CARE (EMERGENCY)

When facing a pastoral emergency, call the Pastoral CareLine—520-971-3551—at any time of any day.

This line is answered by staff clergy on a rotating basis at all hours of the day or night. Do not hesitate to call if you or someone you care about are having an emergency/crisis and need to talk with someone. Some examples: near death, in the hospital, crisis of faith and prayer support, significant loss, mental health crisis

Should you need immediate medical support or face another crises that requests professional assistance, always call 9-1-1 first. Or call one of the help lines that specialize in certain crises, such as mental health, suicide, domestic violence, substance abuse (listed below.) Then, call the Pastoral CareLine (520-971-3551).

NEVER try to communicate with us about a crisis or emergency through email or social media.

SHOULD I CALL, OR SHOULD I NOT?

A situation may be important but not urgent, which means it can wait for business hours. You will still call the office first and then, if need be, the Pastoral CareLine—520-971-3551. If you do not reach a member of the clergy, please leave a message that includes your name, your number, the nature of your need. If it is after hours, and you are calling about an emergency, call again in 5 minutes if someone has not returned the call.

If you are unsure whether the situation you face is an emergency, please err on the side of necessity and call the Pastoral CareLine (520-971-3551). The priest on call will help find the best course of action.

Again, always remember, call 9-1-1 or one of the hotlines listed below to address a medical emergency or other crises requiring immediate professional assistance, such as suicide, domestic violence, substance abuse.
